

Примеры работы:

News

Select a News Source from the List

BBC News

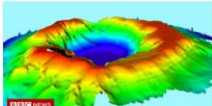

Monkeypox: UK cases rise to 71, with vaccines for high-risk contacts
Sexual health clinics are still open for business but doctors urge patience over appointments.

Forecasters predict a very active hurricane season
A second consecutive winter heavily influenced by La Niña weather patterns threatens violent storms.

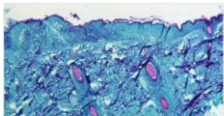

Billie Eilish: Living with Tourette's is 'very exhausting'
The singer has also said people do not always react in a good way when she experiences a tic.

News

Select a News Source from the List

Wired

The Mystery of Monkeypox's Global Spread
Initial genomic sequencing suggests the virus hasn't mutated to become more transmissible. So what explains its unprecedented rise across the world?

What is Wi-Fi? Everything You Need to Know About the Next Wireless Standard
Wi-Fi 7 is likely more than a year away, but will offer some compelling upgrades to boost the speed and stability of wireless connections.

'Sneakerella' Proves Disney Needs to Try Harder
If the company wants to increase diversity in its movies and shows, it needs to make more new stories—not reboot the old ones.

News

Select a News Source from the List

NFL News

NFL Divisional Round showdowns: Deebo Samuel or Davante Adams? Josh Allen or Patrick Mahomes?
The Divisional Round presents a number of enticing individual showdowns, including Deebo Samuel vs. Davante Adams, Josh Allen vs. Patrick Mahomes and Joe Mixon vs. Derrick Henry. So, who does Nick Shook trust more in each matchup?

Chiefs LB Willie Gay Jr. arrested for misdemeanor criminal damage
Kansas City Chiefs linebacker Willie Gay Jr. was arrested Wednesday night in Overland Park, Kansas, for misdemeanor criminal damage, according to the Johnson County Sheriff's Office.

Jerick McKinnon giving Chiefs 'all kinds of confidence' he can contribute after performance vs. Steelers
The Chiefs' backfield received a boost from Jerick McKinnon during their wild-card win over the Steelers. Could McKinnon be called on again in the Divisional Round vs. the Bills?

News

Select a News Source from the List

Time

Trump Could Still Lead the U.S. to Civil War—Even if He Doesn't Run in 2024
There are worrying parallels when we compare what's happening in the U.S. to what happened in other countries torn apart by civil wars.

In Blow to McCarthy, Supreme Court Says Congress Can Keep Voting from Home
This morning, the Supreme Court agreed with two lower courts in their ruling that the Judiciary has no power to help House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy's lonely effort to scrap a proxy voting system put in place to keep government moving amidst a pandemic.

China Tests 2 Million in Beijing and Lifts COVID-19 Lockdown in Xi'an
COVID-19 cases in Beijing have prompted mass testing and new measures ahead of the Winter Olympics, even as Xi'an's lockdown is lifted.

